★ Hotels and Automotive AirPort Expresses the freedom, simplicity and security of Wi-Fi without the hassles of dealing with a wired network. The hotel-tested AirPort Express is small and lightweight, and more importantly, it delivers everything people love about Wi-Fi in a wireless-ready hotel. Wi-Fi travelers can surf the Web or send email in the guest room for free. They can also leave their laptop or iPad in a room and be assured that they'll be able to use it all through the night, and when they check out, just exit the room, leave their laptop and iPad in the room, and walk out the door without paying for a night's use. Most importantly, AirPort Express offers the convenience of free public Wi-Fi anywhere, all the time, so you can surf the Web, check email, download apps, and more, on your laptop or iPad throughout the hotel without needing a data connection. AirPort Express (express.apple.com) is ideal for travelers, but it's also ideal for anyone who needs a simple, reliable way to stay connected in the office or home. Business travelers can share their network connection with their co-workers, and keep their private connection safe from snoops. You can even extend your network to additional locations by adding AirPort Express units to a preexisting network. If you are a hotel that offers free wireless service, or if you'd like to get the benefits of free Wi-Fi at your hotel without the expense, see how your hotel can benefit from Wi-Fi: ★ Bluetooth Accessories The AirPort Express and AirPort Express Base Station are versatile and can work with other Bluetooth accessories. Connecting mobile devices to the AirPort Express also requires just a single USB cable, so you don't have to worry about charging and pairing a new accessory with the Express just so it will work with your AirPort Base Station. That's because the Express offers built-in Bluetooth, so you can easily connect to your Bluetooth-enabled mobile device without any additional setup. Bluetooth is convenient for iPhone, iPod touch, and iPad, but it works with just about any Bluetooth-enabled mobile device, such as most smartphones and most tablets. If you have an iPhone or iPod touch, the AirPort Express provides the easiest way to connect to the AirPort Express Base Station. ★ AirPort Express & AirPort Express
